BDU / Technology Infrastructure Advisory Committee
Meeting Date: Feb 6, 2014, 4PM
Location: Bloomington City Hall McCloskey Room

Board Attendance: Michelle Cole, Mark McMath, Mike Trotzke
Staff Attendance: Rick Dietz
Guest Attendance: John Weakly (IU Director of Systems Infrastructure) on behalf of Dennis Cromwell

CTP Updates (Jason Carnes and Jacqui Bauer)
- Demolition is on progress for food services building
- Demolition is possible for print services building (not finding interested parties)
- RFP is forthcoming to deal with public infrastructure (10th st realignment, alley work and utility placement
- RFP for Master Developer is being discussed
- District Energy is under consideration as well

Rent Rocket (Jacqui Bauer and Rick Dietz)
- Web application to provide public with sustainability information about rentals.
- Multi-city collaboration in first phase. Seeking 2nd phase funding now.
- Challenge is determining a business model to sustain project.
- Mike Trotzke has apartment app industry contacts that could be helpful.

Mike Trotzke
- Combine Conference will feature Jimmy Wales from Wikipedia
- Two workshop tracks and tickets go on sale Feb 10.
- Coding school project is moving forward

John Weakley (IU)
- IU Intelligent Cloud is further consolidating infrastructure across IU
- Just awarded bid RFP to Dell for 3 yr hardware refresh.
- IU is shifting all student accounts off of MS 365 Live to Google.
- Kuali TIME go live is Feb 27

Mark McMath
- Just closed deal on North Park parcels.

Rick Dietz reported on CoB activities:
- Pending further development at Transit/Dispatch Center for fiber hook up
- GSoC 2014 application window is open
- Bristol UK is interested in uReport/GeoReporter